

ARTIST RESIDENCY APPLICATION

QUESTIONS? CONTACT JAY SALINAS - jay@wormfarminstitute.org

The Wormfarm Institute is looking for artists with an interest in sustainability and connection to the land.

Applications are accepted year-round, however our primary review period is December 15th through February 15th.

Please fill out and return this application with a current resume. Send documentation of your work (photocopies, cd, dvd, video, and slides are acceptable). Send no more than 10 images, 15 pages or 10 minutes of video. If you wish it to be returned, enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope and send to:

1. Give a brief statement as to why you would like to do a residency at the wormfarm and a description of a project you have in mind (we understand this may change once you arrive).

2. Part of your residency at the Wormfarm Institute will be helping in our organic vegetable garden. There will also be work on various buildings; including the barn which is gradually being converted to artist studio & workshop space. Please describe skills and experience which could be useful in our efforts.

3. Please give the names, addresses, email addresses, and phone numbers of three references and their relationship to you.

4. How did you hear about Wormfarm Institute?

5. Have you done other residencies? If yes please list name, location, dates

6. How would you arrive here?

7. Our primary residency season goes from May to mid-October. Residencies can be for the entire season or part of it. Minimum two month stay is preferred. These are my preferred dates.
